Perfect for Conferences, events, away days and celebrations

Itchenor Sailing Club

An outstanding boutique venue, with amazing views of the sea and professional staff to make your event a success.

Perfect for business away days, corporate functions or a business celebration, Itchenor has a range of rooms and accommodation to suit events from 10 people to 120.

In an area of outstanding natural beauty on the shores of Chichester Harbour, near the Blue Flag beach of West Wittering, and with the backdrop of Goodwood and the South Downs, Itchenor is within easy reach of London, Brighton, Guildford and Southampton.

The heart of the sailing club is a row of three hundred year old Grade 2 listed fisherman's cottages, arranged around a central lawn area with far reaching views over Chichester Harbour and the Downs. There is a variety of rooms from the Old Sail Loft, Committee Room, Conservatory to the very cosy bar. All rooms have sea views and are perfect for a range of business functions from a product launch for 100 to an intimate dinner for 10. There is accommodation on the upper floors, with 16 lovely rooms, some en-suite. All meeting rooms have wi-fi and audio visual capability.

All rooms have sea views

Professional staff to meet your needs

Itchenor has a professional team ready to meet your needs. House Manager Nick Griffiths has over 18 years experience. He and his team can ensure your event is a success, whether it is arranging a gourmet meal or simple delegate coffee morning. The Club prides itself on using local ingredients where possible, and freshly cooking all the food including its famous afternoon tea and cakes.

Make your event a success

Dining Room

Dining Room. The dining room can seat 120 for a lunch or dinner or can be used as a room for presentations. Framed at one end by a trophy cabinet holding the Club's historic trophies, and with sea views from the other.

Jubilee Room

Conservatory (Jubilee Room). The conservatory is often used as a board style room for 20 around a central table. It can also be used for dinners, either laid out in three table of ten or one table of 24. With excellent views of the harbour and wonderful natural light. Underfloor heating keeps the room warm in the winter.

The Old Sail Loft

The Old Sail loft (Members Room). The old sail loft is a large room that can be laid out in presentation style for 70 or can be used as board room for 20. It has also been used for product launches, training and art displays. The old sail loft was formerly used for drying sails; it now has three sets of doors opening onto the lawn and a small kitchen area. For parties this room also serves as a disco.

The Committee Room

The Committee Room. The committee room is used as a delegate/syndicate room, office area or small board room. It is an intimate room with a fire, just off the bar. For smaller events the committee room can also be used as the disco.

The Bar

The Bar. The bar area is the hub of the Club. It has real character with low beams and a large open fireplace. It makes a perfect place for a team celebration or pre dinner drinks.

Accommodation

Accommodation. The Club has 14 double and twin rooms, many with sea views.

Ideal for corporate, business, social functions and family celebrations

The Upper deck balcony

The Upper Deck Balcony. The balcony is a wonderful place to take a break, either for coffee or drinks. It has far reaching views over the harbour and the South Downs.

The Lawn

The Lawn. At the centre of the Club, in fine weather meals and drinks can be served on the lawn. The Club is famous for its lawn served teas and barbeques, and what a good place to have an instant breakout meeting.

Jetty staging and pool

Jetty staging and pool. The staging area is used to store sailing dinghies. It also has an area of picnic benches, which can be good for lunch or drinks. Several other benches are scattered around the staging overlooking the water and are ideal for that quiet snatched moment. During the summer months a small fresh water pool is open for use by Club guests.

Somewhere special... Itchenor is perfect

Food and drink

Itchenor prides itself on the quality of its food and the range of fine wines and beers on offer. Often the special of the day will be determined by what the local fishermen catch. The Chef can prepare a range of locally sourced and freshly cooked food to suit your occasion and budget. For working lunches, select between a platter of sandwiches, buffet lunch or full service lunch. For evening events, we can provide a selection of canapés, a hot buffet or full dinner service.

Please take a look at our sample menus. If you have a special request or specific dietary requirements our Chef and House Manager will be happy to help.

To accompany your meal we have a range of wines, chosen by the Master Sommelier at Bibendum, available by the glass and the bottle from both the House selection and the Commodore's reserve selection. We also carry an à la carte list of fine wines and Champagne. In the Bar we always have at least 2 draft real ales, plus a range of lagers on tap.

Sumptuous food and fine wines

Delegate rates and room hire

To make your event easy to arrange and organise we have an indicative range of standard delegate rates and costs for room hire. However we prefer to sit down with you and get your event right to suit your needs. Nick our House Manager will then give you a written quote for your event and agree the level of service.

Technical support

The Club has a range of technical support from free wi-fi to large screen projectors. In addition there are audio visual facilities in the Members' Room, Bar, Dining Room, Committee Room and Conservatory. These can be centrally managed or managed independently. In addition the Club has a full office facility with printers, photocopiers, flip charts etc.

Perfect venue for parties and family celebrations

Itchenor is a beautiful venue for life's important celebrations. Families and friends will enjoy the serene views of the harbour and the convenience of the club accommodation, while our team will make sure everything is perfect for your special event. Over the years we have helped people celebrate christenings, weddings, wakes and birthdays from 1 to 80. Whatever your event and budget, large or small, we will be able to help you celebrate in style. Give us a call to see how we can put life into your ideas.

Idyllic setting

Weddings

Can you imagine a nicer setting for your wedding than our 300 hundred year old cottages right by historic Chichester Harbour. Unrepeatable views over sea and boats, yet full, modern hospitality facilities within. You will find our rates lower than you think and we can give you dining and dancing in a wide combination of rooms. Contact Nick Griffiths to discuss your very special day. Ann Marie, our head chef can create any menu you require and can help with suggestions and specialities for you. Maximum seating 120.

Directions to Itchenor by road

When driving, leave the A27 Chichester bypass at the junction with the A286 which is sign-posted Bracklesham and The Witterings. At the mini roundabout at Birdham (4.6 miles), take the B2179 sign-posted West Wittering. The turning to Itchenor is about half a mile further on the right. Itchenor village is at the end of this road (1.2 Miles) with the private Club Lane leading to the sailing club on the right, immediately opposite The Ship public house. There is ample car parking available in the adjacent car park.

Disability access. All ground floor rooms are suitable for those with disabilities to access. Unfortunately because of the grade two building layout, bedrooms do not have full access.
