RYA Dinghy Instructor Course		5 Days
This is a 5 day course to train experienced small boat sailors and assess their competence to teach dinghy sailing to adults and children, both beginners and improvers. It assumes candidates are competent and experienced small boat sailors, capable of sailing a dinghy confidently in strong winds and handling small powerboats. Prerequisites for this course are good standard of dinghy sailing, RYA Powerboat Level 2, valid First Aid certificate, as well as RYA Safe and Fun Safeguarding Certificate. In order to be accepted for training, candidates will have to pass a Pre-Assessment which takes the form of a practical sailing test in a double handed dinghy conducted by an RYA Coach/Assessor.

Junior Training Weeks 1 OR 2		Both 5 Days
This popular 5 day course has been a part of the ISC calendar for many years. The key aim of the weeks is for the children to have lots of fun in a safe and supported environment. The young ISC Instructors are joined by Melvyn Cooper who oversees the two training weeks. These are the perfect way to get to know other children at the club and get prepared for Junior Fortnight!
The Programme for each week of JTWs will be tailored to the abilities of the children attending. There will be an emphasis on developing sailing independence and improving confidence on the water. For the more experienced sailor, there will be a focus on improving specific helming/crewing skills and the start of racing skills. The older children in Week 2 will focus on the progression of intermediate racing skills to a higher standard.
The course fee includes lunch each day with a drink and snack return each afternoon and all RYA certificates that are achieved. See ISC website for more details and the online form.
